SPECIFIC SKILLS and EXPERTISE

I have over 25 years' experience of teaching in a wide range of courses from powerboat to first aid across the UK and abroad. Delivering a variety of training courses to organisations, the majority of courses being first aid or marine based.

I also work closely with Beyond Limits Training delivering courses for individuals who wish to work within the maritime industry.

My company is a recognised Royal Yacht Association (RYA) training centre, as well as an approved Quasafe awarding company, which enables us to certificate all Ofqual approved first aid qualifications.
